

Dear Kindergarten Families,

During library class, your child will learn/is learning about the Caldecott Medal, which is awarded to distinguished illustrations in picture books. This Caldecott Kid Reading Log gives you an opportunity to continue the discussion at home. Your child is invited to complete this log by documenting the Medal and Honor Medal winners you read together. Upon returning it to the library, your child will become a “Caldecott Kid” and will have their name displayed on our “Caldecott Kid Hall of Fame” bulletin board.

The deadline for is Friday, February 27th.

To see a list of all the books that have been awarded a Caldecott Medal and Honor Medal, go to:

<http://tinyurl.com/74rv7qc>

Thank you and have fun,

Mrs. Suechting, Library Media Specialist

Elissa.suechting@wfbsschools.com

Dear Kindergarten Families,

During library class, your child will learn/is learning about the Caldecott Medal, which is awarded to distinguished illustrations in picture books. This Caldecott Kid Reading Log gives you an opportunity to continue the discussion at home. Your child is invited to complete this log by documenting the Medal and Honor Medal winners you read together. Upon returning it to the library, your child will become a “Caldecott Kid” and will have their name displayed on our “Caldecott Kid Hall of Fame” bulletin board.

The deadline for is Friday, February 27th.

To see a list of all the books that have been awarded a Caldecott Medal and Honor Medal, go to:

<http://tinyurl.com/74rv7qc>

Thank you and happy reading,

Mrs. Suechting, Library Media Specialist

Elissa.suechting@wfbsschools.com