CINDY NELSON EDUCATION FUND

The Whitefish Bay Public Education Foundation, Inc. administers the Cindy Nelson Education Fund, which is a scholarship program for teachers. The Fund was created through the generous contributions of family, friends and colleagues of Cindy Nelson, and Whitefish Bay community members.

Cindy Nelson taught in Whitefish Bay public schools from 1975 until she unexpectedly passed away in March of 2004. She worked at all four public schools as a speech pathologist, first or second grade teacher. Her career was marked by dedication to excellence and a deep devotion to the education and development of her students. She served on the Foundation and filled the roll of secretary for part of that time.

The Cindy Nelson Education Fund scholarships are available to Whitefish Bay public school teachers and other professionals in an amount up to $595 to pay for tuition or fees for educational courses, workshops or seminars that will enhance the applicant's ability to educate students in the Whitefish Bay public schools. Approval is within the discretion of the Foundation, although the goal of the Foundation is to disburse all funds relatively expeditiously to eligible applicants in the order requested.
