

WHITEFISH BAY
BLUE DUKES

Activities Guide

23/24+

Extracurricular activities are an integral part of the Whitefish Bay High School experience. They can add an educational dimension that is not available in the classroom. Students can find great enjoyment and satisfaction participating with friends in activities they enjoy.

Ways you can learn more about activities include:

- Reading through this guide and seeing if anything appeals to you
- Listening to the morning announcements for information on how to join clubs, teams and organizations
- Talking to your counselor about your interests
- Talking with fellow students, siblings, parents, friends and teachers about any activity
- Contacting the Activities Director, Mr. Worzella
- Attending the Activities Fair in early September
- You can even start your own club or activity by contacting Mr. Worzella

The School District of Whitefish Bay allows the clubs to meet and organize at Whitefish Bay School only. When the activity occurs outside of Whitefish Bay High School, the activity is not part of the school sponsorship and are done on the individual's own liability.

Mock Trial

Mr. Finder: david.finder@wfbschools.com

Each year, from September to February, hundreds of Wisconsin teenagers (working with a teacher and outside attorney coaches) research, study and prepare a hypothetical courtroom trial involving issues of interest and importance to young people. The Mock Trial team is for students looking to improve their speaking skills, enjoy student competition, and focus on real-world life skills that are needed in many professional careers. Mock Trial is not about creating attorneys, it's about creating better people. This is a unique and great experience that requires commitment that results in a stronger college resume.

Forensics

TBD: jeff.worzella@wfbschools.com

Our team is composed of debaters, speakers, actors, and interpreters who all have a common goal: Finding their voice. We accept people of all skill levels--including those terrified of speaking in front of others and English language learners. We compete in a variety of local tournaments. We're sure you'll find your place with our team all while building friendships and skills that will last a lifetime.

CLUBS THAT COMPETE
