"Bringing peace
to children
one book
at a time!"

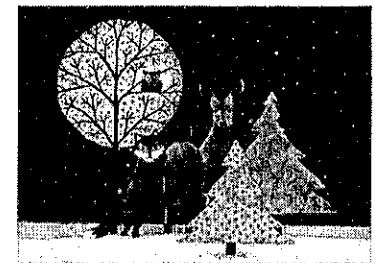

annbiese.com

When Worry Bee has worries, breathing techniques help settle the mind and body, ensuring that all is well. Learn strategies to help young children cope with their fears and overwhelming feelings.

What would you do if you were the moon and could watch every season from the sky? Mindful Moon takes us on a journey of living in the present moment through all the seasons of the year.

Your child will love reading these book with you!
