

Human Growth and Development Education Curriculum K5 Content Outline

2011

In senior kindergarten, students will know and understand at a developmentally appropriate level:

The nature of communities and families at home and around the world and the different roles within the family. (Social Studies)

The celebration of individual differences, family differences and cultural differences. (Social Studies)

The roles of community helpers. (Social Studies)

Safety and awareness at home and school. (Social Studies)

An awareness of self, personal interests, strengths and abilities, that we are all "one of a kind." (Guidance)

Ways of asking for/offering help; identifying steps in a decision making process. (Guidance)

Feelings and emotion-producing situations; healthy ways to cope with unpleasant feelings and situations. (Guidance)

Preventative behavior and caution with strangers (Health)

That everyone has a need for privacy (Health)

Parent Grade Level Overview